

My Week in Bricks

You will need:

- A pile of bricks, minifigures, vehicles and pieces

How to play:

- Think about things that have happened recently.
- There may have been some tricky things you have had to do and there may have been some exciting things. You may have found yourself doing new or challenging tasks or activities.
- Build your:
 - a) favourite task or activity this week
 - b) least favourite task or activity this week
 - c) your greatest achievement this week
 - d) best memory of this week
- Show your models to people in your family and your friends. Do they have interesting things to build for their week?
